Ordinary Time

What do the words Ordinary Time mean? Dorothy Day said, "The words 'Ordinary Time' in our prayer books put me in a state of confusion and irritation. To me, no time is ordinary." She was right. The Ordinary in "Ordinary Time" refers to ordinal—counted—time, not a lack of something to celebrate. Apart from those seasons having their own distinctive character (Advent, Christmastime, Lent, Triduum and Eastertime), 33-34 weeks remain that do not celebrate a specific aspect of the mystery of Christ. Rather, especially on the Sundays, they are devoted to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects."

How do we celebrate "the mystery of Christ in all its aspects"? We gather every Sunday. Sunday is our original feast day. Christians have gathered every Sunday—the day of Christ's resurrection, the first day of the week—ever since there were Christians. When we gather on Sundays we hear the scriptures proclaimed. The church reads straight through "the gospel of the year," either Matthew, Mark or Luke each week. (We read John during Lent, Easter and on feasts.)

The first readings from the Old Testament were chosen for their relationship to the gospel passages. Many voices are heard throughout summer Ordinary Time. We also read through some letters of the New Testament. The mystery of Christ "in all its aspects" unfolds.

What is the heart of our Sunday celebration? Our Eucharist; that is, our thanksgiving. We praise and thank God for all creation; we pray for the whole world, as we remember Christ's life, death and resurrection. We share the bread and wine, the body and blood. We are sent forth to be the body and blood of Christ in our homes, our workplaces, our neighborhoods, our towns, our cities, our country, our world.

"What happens in our churches every Sunday is the fruit of our week. What happens as the fruit of the week past is the beginning of the week to come. Sunday is simultaneously a point of arrival and departure for Christians on their way to the fullness of the kingdom. This is not ordinary at all. This is the fabric of Christian living." -Copyright © 1997, Archdiocese of Chicago. Liturgy Training Publications. Text by G. Thomas.

Ministry Meetings

Scammers! Several parishioners have recently brought to my attention that they have received text messages from someone claiming to be me and asking them to purchase gift cards for me.

Please remember that there are people out there trying to steal your money through email and text message scams. Often, they can be pretty convincing. Please don't let them fool you. One very important rule to keep in mind to avoid getting scammed: Apart from our regular fundraising activities, I would NEVER contact you via text message or email and ask you to do ANYTHING that costs you money. If you get a text or an email that involves you spending your money, then you know it's not from me. God Bless!

Fr. Josef

Food Pantry: Due to the growing need for more food, we rely on your generosity. Giving food is not charity; it is an expression of humanity and compassion. We are currently in need of the following items:

Jelly	spaghetti sauce	canned beets
canned peas &amp; carrots		solid white tuna
cereal	dish detergent	bath soap

Thrift Shop: Visit our Parish Thrift Shop on Saturdays from 10am to 1pm. There are great bargains on clothing and shoes for the whole family! The housewares department has a wide assortment of dishes, glassware, pictures, linens and toys. All proceeds benefit our food pantry.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

In today's Gospel we see how in faith, Jarius asked Jesus to heal his daughter and how Jesus then answered his prayer. In prayer we also come to know that we are loved by God, and in that trust we ask for healing for ourselves, our loved ones and all those who are suffering. This week, please join with the Society of St. Vincent de Paul in praying for the healing of all those who are ill and especially those who have no one to pray for them.

We meet at 7:30pm the third Wednesdays of the month in St. Boniface School. For more information, please call Jovanna Lemonda at 516-676-0676 x124.
