Outreach Christmas Food Baskets

Once again we are reaching out to our parishioners to help us with our Annual Food Drive. All food collected is used for our Christmas baskets which are distributed to our Outreach families and neighbors. As you all know, economic times make it difficult for some families to purchase food and feed their families, and therefore your assistance is greatly appreciated.

All food donations may be left at Church during Sunday Masses or dropped off at the Food Pantry Saturdays from 10am to 1pm.

Here is a list of food needed:

turkey gravy

canned green beans

canned corn

shelf stable milk

cake mix

stuffing

canned soup

canned fruit

grape jelly

cake icing

cranberry sauce

canned yams

small bags of rice

strawberry jelly

instant mashed potatoes

Thank you for your help in providing food to our needy families and neighbors.

Thank you for your great love and care. Thank you for your mercy and grace.

Thank you for always supporting us and our mission.

Forgive us when we don't thank you enough for who you are,
for all that you do and for all that you have given.

God bless you and your families!

David, Jody and all the Outreach Volunteers

Holy Days

Some days carry obligations. Birthdays, family reunions, and holidays oblige us to send cards, buy gifts, attend parties, reserve time, telephone, or stop by. Such events make up a calendar of observances whose obligations we honor out of love, even when they cause inconvenience.

The Catholic Church also keeps a calendar of special days. Some of those rank so high in importance that we call them “holy days of obligation.”

On holy days, the Church asks us all to participate in the Eucharist. Technically, the obligation is not to “go to Mass” but to “participate” there. If you go to a birthday party but sit quietly in the back of the room, you have not really participated.

We also abstain from any work that keeps us from worship, stifles joy, or inhibits relaxation. The obligation for holy days is the same for Sundays. It is not just an obligation to attend Mass but also an obligation of worship, happiness, and peace.

Although we observe six holy days in the United States, the universal Church law nominates ten. Some of them celebrate the mystery of Christ: Christmas (December 25), Epiphany (January 6), Ascension (Thursday of the sixth week of Easter), and The Body and Blood of Christ (Thursday after Trinity Sunday). Others gaze on the Blessed Virgin: Mary the Mother of God (January 1), Immaculate Conception (December 8), and Assumption (August 15). [Since December 8, 2024 is the Second Sunday of Advent, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary is transferred to Monday, December 9.] The rest concern others among the blessed: St. Joseph (March 19), Ss. Peter and Paul (July 29), and All Saints (November 1).

In the United States, our bishops have transferred the Epiphany and the Body and Blood of Christ to Sundays and have removed the obligation from the feasts of St. Joseph and Ss. Peter and Paul. In some parts of the country, Ascension has also been transferred to a Sunday.

Immaculate Conception

“The Immaculate Conception” is a title for Mary, the mother of Jesus. The expression means that Mary was conceived without sin. The conviction that Jesus was born of a virgin is a distinct belief, even though many Catholics erroneously think that the Immaculate Conception refers to Jesus.

Contributing to the confusion is the celebration of the Immaculate Conception during the season of Advent. While the faithful are preparing to honor the birth of Jesus, we commemorate the conception of Mary. The choice of December 8 for the Immaculate Conception does not directly relate to Advent; it corresponds more to the traditional date for the Feast of the Birth of Mary, September 8, which coincides with the dedication of a Jerusalem church in honor of the mother of Mary. The feast for the conception of Mary is backed up from that day nine months. In a similar way, we celebrate the Annunciation on March 25, nine months before the birth of Jesus.

Belief in the Immaculate Conception asserts that God preserved Mary from all sin from the moment of her conception, thus preparing a pure vessel for the Incarnation of the Son. This belief is not expressly contained in the Scriptures, but it enjoys a widespread following in the Church’s tradition. Although the Immaculate Conception of Mary has been affirmed since the earliest centuries of Christianity, it was not formally proclaimed a dogma of the Church until 1854.

December 8 is now a holy day of obligation in the United States, which is placed under Mary’s patronage with this title. [Since December 8, 2024 is the Second Sunday of Advent, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary is transferred to Monday, December 9.]

When Mary is depicted as the Immaculate Conception, she is often shown wearing a crown of stars as the woman in Revelation 12 and standing on a snake, reversing the temptation of Eve. Mary, the Immaculate Conception, is the exalted Queen of Heaven who manifests God’s power over sin.

This Week at Home

Monday, December 9

Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception

Luke's Gospel relates that Mary is "greatly troubled" at the angel Gabriel's greeting. The angel attempts to comfort her, telling her not to be afraid and reminding her that "nothing will be impossible for God." Celebrate Mary's courageous response to God's call by spending time in silence, listening to how God may be calling you. Reach out to a conversation partner and share your prayer experience.

Tuesday, December 10

Comfort

Speaking to the Judeans exiled in Babylon, Isaiah tells of the deliverance that is to come. He assures them that flesh might wither and wilt as grass and flowers do, but the word of our God stands forever." In the Gospel, we hear that the Lord values each one of his followers, and just as a shepherd goes after his sheep, the Father does not want one of his to be lost.

Wednesday, December 11

Mercy and Grace

As you light two candles on your Advent wreath, say a prayer in gratitude for the Lord's mercy and graciousness. As the psalm proclaims, he is "slow to anger, abounding in mercy" despite our turning from him. The Lord is always welcoming, for as the Gospel states, he calls out, "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened."

Thursday, December 12

Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe

Our Lady of Guadalupe appeared to St. Juan Diego, an indigenous peasant, at Tepeyac Hill in Mexico. Today we celebrate Mary's presence, especially her making herself known to those who are marginalized. On this feast day, pray with Mary's canticle (Luke 1:46-55) and ask for her intercession to help you proclaim the greatness of the Lord.

Friday, December 13

St. Lucy

St. Lucy, whose name means "light," is the patron saint of the blind. She was tortured and martyred for her dedication to her faith. St. Lucy is often depicted holding a platter with gouged eyeballs. Pray for St. Lucy's intercession today, that you may give sight to those who are hopeless and bring light in the darkness of persecution.

Saturday, December 14

St. John of the Cross

St. John of the Cross is the patron saint of contemplatives, mystics, and Spanish poets. After being educated by the Augustinians and Jesuits, he joined the Carmelites. St. John of the Cross encountered Teresa of Avila and was attracted to her devotion to prayer and simplicity. After being influenced by her regimented spirituality, he was punished for seeking to restore the Carmelite order. To celebrate St. John of the Cross, learn about the Catholic Church's diverse spiritual traditions. Pray with one that may be unfamiliar to you.
