St. Matthew emerged from the despised profession of tax collectors, seen as traitors to the Jews for collaborating with the Romans.

Matthew's Gospel relates his conversion this way, "As Jesus passed on from there, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at the customs post. He said to him, 'Follow me.' And he got up and followed him" (Matthew 9:9). Immediately after Matthew abandoned his occupation, he invited Jesus to dine at his house and Jesus accepted.

Dining with them were other tax collectors and sinners. The Pharisees condemned Jesus for associating with these men. Jesus rebuked them: "Those who are well do not need a physician, but the sick do. Go and learn the meaning of the words, 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' I did not come to call the righteous but sinners" (Matthew 9:12-13).

Throughout the rest of the Gospels, Matthew's name is listed with the Twelve. He was present at the Ascension and Pentecost. Early Church Fathers state he remained for some time in Judea, preaching the Gospel and helping the newly formed Church. He may have penned his Gospel during this period.

St. Matthew's most enduring gift is his Gospel, which early Church Fathers attribute to him unequivocally. His Gospel was written for his fellow Jews, likely in Hebrew and Aramaic and later translated into Greek. It shows Jesus as the fulfillment of the Old Testament, the long-awaited Messiah. He begins with a lengthy genealogy tracing Jesus' roots to Abraham, the father of the Jewish nation. The Sermon on the Mount portrays Jesus as the new Moses, offering the New Law on the new mountain. Moses received the Law from God on Mount Sinai while the Son of God gives the New Law on the Mount of the Beatitudes.—my catholiclife.org

The CHOSEN

Sundays after 10:30am Mass
Parish Center Chapel
Starts September 22

Please join us as we watch Season 3 of The Chosen, the series about the life of Jesus. We will view one episode at each session (approximately 1 hour), after 10:30am Mass (and hospitality), and follow up with a discussion.

As Season 3 kicks off with Episode 1, "Homecoming," we see Jesus preaching The Sermon on the Mount to a large crowd of people. As Jesus says each line, the camera pans to different disciples and followers showing how it affects each one. A lot of interpersonal relations are focused on this first episode: Thomas and Ramah, Andrew and John the Baptist, and Matthew, as he deals with his past sins. We also meet Judas, Joanna, and Jairus. This episode is a good foundation, continuing with the teachings of Jesus and building up the personal stories of his followers, which is a common theme throughout the third season.

We are a pilgrim people on a journey toward the Kingdom of God.

No matter where you are on your journey, you are invited to join us.

Please RSVP if you plan to attend.
This will help us to set up and provide resources and refreshments for you. Thank you.
